School Supervision

Just a reminder to parents that there is no supervision before 8:30 am. In order to ensure student safety, the administration requests that families avoid early drop-offs. For more information, please refer to the student hand book.

School Art Fair

The district Art Fair will be held during the week of March 1st to 5th. Student art will be displayed at Piccadilly Place Mall throughout the week. A few of our students will have the privilege of participating in workshops that local artists will be conducting on Wednesday, March 3rd.

KCS—Website Update

We are excited to announce that our school's website is up and running again. The address is www.kingschristianschool.ca. Check it out and while there sign up to have our newsletters emailed directly to you automatically.

Mexico Mission Team Send-off

The high school chapel invites parents and friends to join them for the Mission Team send-off Tuesday, March 2nd at 8:45 am. The Mission Team would appreciate your prayers for safe travel, health, good opportunities to share the gospel, team unity and that they will honour the Lord with their service.

King's Elementary Basketball

As the elementary basketball season wraps up we would like to wish the girls' and boys' teams continued success as they head into the zone playoffs. Join us in the King's gymnasium to cheer on the girls when they host the zones on Monday, February 22, 2010 starting at 2:30 pm. The boys team will be playing their zones at Rancho on Tuesday, February 23, 2010.

KCS MISSION STATEMENT

As a community of Christians we desire to educate for life. Our mission is to teach students to know God, His Word and His world, challenging students to excel, yet with humility serve God and humanity.

Praying Parents

Food for the Soul...

"Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us." - Romans 8:35,37
